Education must be obtained from approved schools, must be the specific courses that are approved for that biennium, and must include an exam that is passed. Continuing education courses from other states do not satisfy Wisconsin's requirements unless approved in Wisconsin.

Everyone must take the following course during the 2009-2010 biennium:

Auctioneer Ethical and Professional Conduct/Wisconsin Laws – 3 Hours

Everyone must take 9 more hours from one or more of the categories below:

- Maintenance of Records and Trust Accounts/Wisconsin Laws
- Federal and Wisconsin Laws Relating to Auctioneering
- Real Estate Auctions – Practice and Legal Requirements
- Commercial Auctions – Practice and Legal Requirements
- Agricultural Auctions – Practice and Legal Requirements
- Internet Auctions
- Proxy Bids

Exceptions to CE

Initial Licensees: Licensees do not have to complete CE if initially registered less than 6 months before the first renewal. Verify grant date under License Lookup at <http://dps.wi.gov>.

Test-out Option: Licensees may take a 60 question test-out examination by submitting the application and exam fee prior to taking the test. The test-out examination may be retaken one time. Licensees unsuccessful after 2 tries must take the approved courses. A link to the Test-Out examination can be found here: <http://dps.wi.gov/profdetail.asp?pdetailid=362&profid=71&locid=0>

Verification of CE Completion

Credential holders must maintain proof of completion of CE. The Department conducts random audits of CE completion.

Persons who cannot complete CE requirements by December 14 of the biennium should cease practice of any of the activities covered by the license until CE is completed and the license is renewed. Falsifying a renewal is noncompliance and may result in suspension and other discipline.

Extensions of time to complete CE may be granted to licensees on active duty in the military service outside Wisconsin, or for verified health or other compelling reasons beyond the control of the licensee.

Renewal of License

Licenses must be renewed by December 14 of each even numbered year. To receive a renewal notice, keep the Department informed of your current address.
